

Linux Plumbers Conference 2025

Contribution ID: 246

Type: not specified

Blackout Reduction

An open discussion on improving kexec performance during live updates. Minimizing the downtime associated with reboots is critical. This session will explore potential optimizations, including methods to speed up ACPI discovery, enhance serialization/deserialization, and ideas like orphaned VMs. We invite the audience to contribute their own ideas and experiences to collaboratively identify strategies for a faster, more efficient live update process.

Primary author: TATASHIN, Pasha

Presenter: TATASHIN, Pasha

Session Classification: Live Update MC

Track Classification: Live Update MC